Description:

This 1980 Cessna P210N has a story like no other! Bought new by Herb Kelleher, co-founder of Southwest Airlines, it was stolen with just a few hundred hours on it and taken across the border by the Mexican drug cartel. Returned to the U.S. in 1992 and fully restored, it now has less than 1,300 hours total time, a fresh annual, and is in excellent condition - with a history to match!
