1998 MOONEY | M20J

Introducing this low time 1998 Mooney M20J. This two-owner aircraft has been hangar kept since new and is being sold due to owner looking to move into a Cirrus. Equipped with a Garmin GTN 750XI, it offers excellent situational awareness and IFR capability while retaining the M20J's renowned efficiency, speed, and handling. This aircraft has clearly benefited from consistent care and proper storage, making it a fantastic opportunity for its new owner to get a very clean and capable cross-country traveler.
