AIRCRAFT BIDDER

1975 ROCKWELL 112 COMMANDER

This 1975 Rockwell 112A Commander is a well-equipped and ready for its next owner. With 5,860 hours and 872 hours since major overhaul, it offers a strong balance of experience and longevity. The panel features a modern Garmin GTN 750 XI, Garmin G5 Stack, and GI 275 EIS, providing excellent situational awareness and engine monitoring, while remaining IFR current for immediate mission capability. Fresh off an annual completed in January 2026, this Commander is turnkey and ready to fly. The current owner is parting with the aircraft simply to spend more time at home with family and hopes to pass it along to its next happy owner who will continue to enjoy it as much as he has.
